10. Justification (Description of Positive Behavior)  Mr. Galanis has had a positive impact on the fellow inmates of his unit, on the department and on programs by volunteering his time to provide education programs on unit 5 north. He has shown quality character skills and has had a positive impact on the institution by assisting inmates with preparing for the GED exam but also providing continuing education programs focused on skills that are useful in a corporate environment. Aside from tutoring GED students, Mr. Galanis has led several Corporate Skills classes in areas such as: Business Acumen, Entrepreneurship and Basic Bookkeeping. Mr. Galanis has shown himself to be a responsible inmate by contributing to the environment of his unit in a positive way and that impact is evidenced by the number of fellow inmates that continue to benefit from his efforts.
